

Horticultural Support Worker Job Description

The Seed Box is a small charity and social enterprise providing horticultural training and outdoor therapy to children and adults with additional support needs.

Our core belief is that everyone, given the opportunity, is able to contribute to society regardless of ability. Occupying three gardens, The Seed Box produce plants for sale, vegetables for a veg bag scheme, fruit for jams and juice, cut flowers and woodcrafts.

However, our main focus is supporting our co-workers to grow in confidence and work-based skills.

The ideal candidate will possess a “can do” attitude, an ability to support, engage and motivate others, as well as being organised and able to plan your own workload.

You will also be required to drive our minibus and van and occasional weekend working, plus help at events.

Normal working hours are 9am – 4.15pm, Monday - Friday (36.25hrs per week).
